WEEKLY ACTIVITIES AND STATUS REPORT FOR THE DD/ICS--28 November 1984CIPC Organizational Activities

- A check with Executive Registry indicates that the DCI has not yet taken any action on the CBW and China Studies that were forwarded to him on 14 and 16 November, respectively. Both of the studies are presently being reviewed by the DDCI.
- Hard copy printing of the BMD Study is nearing completion and should be ready for distribution to the Intelligence Community early next week for implementation.
- [ ] have been developing an initial draft of the Terrorism Study. It should be ready for our review in the near future.
- [ ] will have an initial draft of the follow-up Cruise Missile Report ready for our review by mid-December.
- In a recent conversation with [ ] regarding the final Perry Panel BMD Report, [ ] recommended that either [ ] attend the next Perry Panel meeting at Los Alamos in January. [ ] stated that this would be the final meeting prior to the panel drafting their report to the CIPC addressing the BMD problem. [ ] believes we would gain some insights into the content of their report while concurrently providing guidance to the panel as appropriate.
- [ ]
- [ ] have started updating the follow-up narcotics report for the DDCI. [ ] has been instructed to complete this process for a possible 17 December CIPC Meeting.
- [ ] Special Assistant to General Faurer and [ ] is meeting with [ ] on 30 November to review and discuss a wide range of topics, to include the CIPC's modus operandi.
